

Set Meetings To Discuss Road Routings

A series of public meetings to discuss the new federal highway that would serve this area is to be held about mid-December at New Lenox, Downers Grove and Lombard.

This announcement was made by Francis S. Lorenz, director of the Illinois department of public works and buildings, who added that the public is invited to attend any or all of these sessions at which state highway engineers will outline the proposed location of the new expressway.

As had been previously announced in these pages the proposed new expressway is scheduled to follow the corridor of Illinois 53 from proposed Interstate 90 near Itasca to I-80 north of New Lenox, as shown in the engineer's drawing on this page.

The first hearing is scheduled for the Blester auditorium of Glenbard East high school, 1014 S. Main St., Lombard on Dec. 14, beginning at 10 a.m. The hearing will consider that portion of the proposed expressway from I-90 to U.S. 30-A.

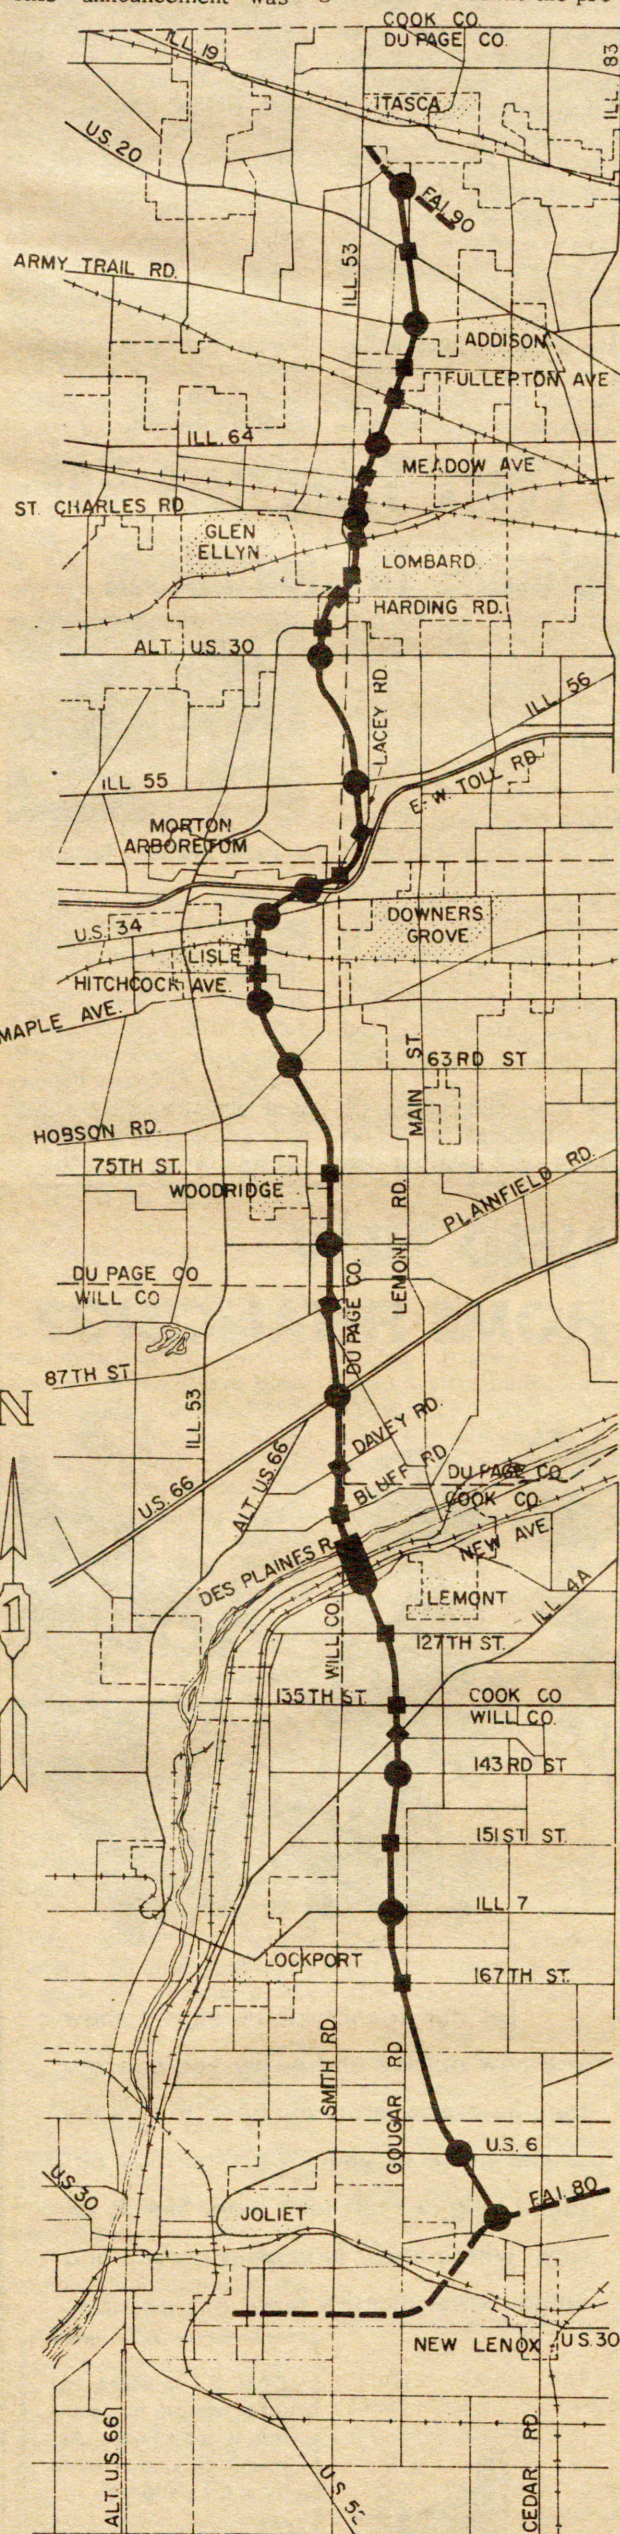

The second hearing is to be held in Downers Grove high school (South Campus) at 63rd and Dunham rd., Downers Grove, beginning at 10 a.m. on Tuesday, Dec. 15, and will consider that portion of the proposed route from U.S. 30-A to the DuPage - Will county line.

The third hearing is slated for the exhibition hall at the Fred Francis 4-H Field, on Francis rd., New Lenox township, one mile east of Cedar rd. The hearing is to begin at 10 o'clock Dec. 16 and will consider the route from the Will-DuPage county line to the route of I-80.

Maps showing the proposed highway location and plan of controlling access will be on display for inspection by the public prior to, during and following the hearings. Engineers of the highway department will discuss matters relating to the proposed improvement prior to and after the hearings, it was said.

The routing of this expressway caused considerable controversy early this fall when it was indicated it would pass thru Morton Arboretum. The garden clubs in that area made a vigorous protest to state officials against bringing the route thru the arboretum.

From the engineer's drawing it would appear that a small segment of the arboretum is involved. The proposed new expressway would provide easy access to the northeast suburbs for residents from New Lenox, Frankfort, Mokena, Orland Park and Lemont.

Two Dead, One Injured When Car Crashes Rail, Wall

Two men, one of them a Mokena resident, were killed and a woman passenger critically injured when the automobile in which they were riding plunged thru a steel guard rail and over a stone and concrete wall and plummeted to railroad tracks 40 feet below.

The crash occurred about 10 o'clock Sunday night at the east end of the bridge over the Illinois waterway on 135th st. in Romeoville.

Dead are:

Robert J. Hancasky, 43, of 11609 194th st., in Sunny Acres, a subdivision adjacent to Mokena west of Wolf rd.

Charles H. Brocken, 69, of Rt. 3, Plainfield, a retired employe of Argo Corn Products Co.

Critically injured is Mrs. Erleen Hancasky, 43, wife of Robert. She is in Silver Cross hospital suffering from multiple fractures.

The day following the crash Romeoville police had not determined who was driving the car but the vehicle, a Thunderbird, was owned by Hancasky. The latter had been employed as a millwright at the Ceco Steel Co., Lemont, and had been a resident of Mokena for the past three years.

The car was traveling east. The bridge over the waterway at this point is a swing span. At its east end the road comes up to it from the south at a right angle so that the turn off the bridge is quite abrupt and on a grade. The road descends to the south, around a curve and over the Santa Fe tracks and then makes another S-curve before it heads east again.

Where the road joins the east end of the waterway bridge it is perched on a rock shelf some 40 feet above the Santa Fe right-of-way.

Mrs. Hancasky was found lying alongside the car. The bodies of the two men were on the tracks. Both had skull and neck fractures, and crushing and internal injuries.

No date has been set for the inquests.

Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Hancasky, of Lemont, are the parents of Robert, and he also has a brother Richard, who resides in Lemont. The body was taken to the Markiewicz funeral home in Lemont and funeral services were conducted today.

The body of Charles Brocken was taken to the Foran funeral home at Summit. Brocken has a son Charles, Jr., in Summit, three brothers, Clifford, Clement and Fred, and three grandchildren. He had been a resident of Wheatland township for 10 years. Services were to be held this afternoon at 1:30.

Speculation On Election

In the aftermath of every election comes a time of intense analysis and speculation. The decisions and attitudes expressed by the voters are minutely scrutinized and graphed, all the way from Washington to the local communities. The statistical charts pile higher and higher, and become the source materials for politicians, political scientists and historians of the future. Then, along with this, more or less educated guesses are made as to what may be expected of the government in power. That is going on now. And some interesting facts, along with many anticipations, are its product.

This election demonstrated that there is less and less party regularity and more and more ticket splitting. Thus, despite the President's landslide vote in California, the U. S. Senate seat at stake went to a Republican who was given scant chance when the campaign began. The President carried Oregon with ease, but the Republicans gained control of the state House of Representatives for the first time in years and maintained control of the state's Board of Control. So it went, in numbers of states throughout the nation. The President's coattails were broad enough to carry many of his adherents into office but not all of them by any means.

Just about everyone is sure that in the immediate time ahead the Administration's main energies must be given to foreign affairs. The list of trouble spots around the world grows, with Viet Nam at the top. Reports that new Soviet government is supplying large quantities of modern weapons to satellites and hoped-for satellites is the cause of deepening concern. The preservation of NATO is a first order of business. Belief that a strengthening of policy is needed grows, and it is bipartisan in nature.

In the realm of domestic policy, as it will be blueprinted to the next Congress, the speculations are frequently contradictory. One school thinks that the President's margin was so large and Democratic control of Congress, particularly the House, so complete, that Mr. Johnson will be able to write his own ticket, right down to such intensely controversial programs as Medicare. But history tells us that Congress is often extremely jealous of its prerogatives, powers and independence and that Presidents have learned this to their cost. The classic example is the Roosevelt Supreme Court packing bill. The President had been elected by a huge margin, the Democratic edge in Congress was overwhelming. He threw all his influence behind the bill. Yet he lost, and a lasting bitterness within and without Congress resulted. Some historians think that, because of this, Mr. Roosevelt might have been beaten in the subsequent election had it not been for the coming of the war and the "Don't rock the boat" attitude it produced among great numbers of people.

Then there is the character of Mr. Johnson himself. His undeviating stress has been on unity. This was so during the campaign and it has been true since. He clearly wants to alienate as few people as possible. So, a good many writers forecast, it may be that he will move slowly and be willing to accept compromises in order to advance the unity concept. If that is the case -- and we will have to wait and see -- there will be few major surprises.

Another point deserves mention. Fear of more inflation is on the rise once more. This in itself could be a powerful restraining influence on both the Executive and the Legislative branches.

BUSINESS & FINANCE

MAURICE P. ANGLAND

The increase in the discount rate by the Federal Reserve Board had been expected for some time and came as no surprise to informed investment circles.

Uncertainty and the unknown are distrusted by investors and events will now not be influenced by this uncertainty. An old adage in the market is that it never discounts the same event twice.

The discount rate increase in England was made to stem the outflow of capital and the excess of imports above exports. The discount rate of 7 per cent is the highest of modern times and intended to lure capital back to England.

The discount-rate is the rate charged by the central bank on re-discounts of mortgages and commercial paper which are used to borrow added funds by commercial banks. Industrial borrowers and other must pay a higher rate in order to show a profit to the commercial bank.

England had a serious imbalance of payments in that her imports were much greater than exports. This creates a condition wherein sums due are less than those owed to other nationals. Such a condition creates pressures on the exchange demands of the particular country and may bring on lack of faith in that country's currency. England has small raw product resources and must import raw materials for processing into final products - some of which are exported. A profit must be made in the process.

If balance-of-payments does not correct itself, re-discount rates are raised in order to discourage imports or finally, currency is devalued.

Critics point out that English labor has a low man-hour production rate and British industry has been slow to automate. It is noted that automation is expensive and available capital may not care to make such a long term investment under present conditions. About 20 years ago Britain nationalized its mines and is an outstanding world example of what happens in such conditions.

MARKET COMMENTS

it is appropriate to scan investment advises of some of the leading investment commentary.

Standard and Poor - Outlook - noted that the stock market advance is based on sound fundamentals, but has been accompanied by speculative activity.

Comment is that autos and chemicals are favored by the investment companies and that these funds continued to increase holdings in September.

The November issue of Fortune magazine business column - Business Roundup - expects the Christmas retail sales to exceed 1963 figures by 10 per cent in department stores and 7 per cent in all retail. They note especially a 5 per cent gain in grocery sales which is unusual.

Most investment sources remain optimistic for some time in the future although expect a slowing down during latter part of 1965. Fortune points out that their opinion is that the added buying power of the tax cut, has about been exhausted.

Utilities are receiving more and more attention due to their steady growth rate which exceeds that of many industrials.

Labor costs are receiving particular attention and the suggestion is made that investment emphasis be on those industries with lowest labor costs - i. e. the large oil firms.

Potted chrysanthemums, always popular in fall, have gained more favor since professional growers now produce these colorful plants in many attractive "compact" shapes and colors. People like potted mums because they serve the same decorative purpose as cut flowers and arrive "arranged" in their own red clay pots.

Clay-potted mums in yellow and rust shades make handsome worthwhile plants for pre-Christmas giving.

They are available in many forms including the new "compacts" as well as the long-stem traditional. Look for the charming button-type mum, the oriental spoon type, and the large football mum which can serve double duty as a corsage whenever you like. Another big point in favor of the potted mum is that you can plant some varieties in your garden next spring after frost danger is past. You will enjoy its blossoms again in fall, and there will be repeat bloom for years to come.

House plant buyers are becoming increasingly aware of the future "double-duty" value of plants they purchase as gifts. Both mums and the ever-favored Christmas poinsettias are plants with futures, but there are many others. Azaleas are a very new item for the Christmas trade.

Always a standby, we hardly need to be reminded of the colorful Christmas cherries and peppers of many kinds. . . usually with orange or red fruit.

African violets you buy as gift plants will not serve outdoors, but can go on for years and years indoors, producing many new plants from cuttings placed in water or soil and later potted when roots form.

The semperflorens or Christmas begonia is another old favorite now available in improved compact forms. . . like pink and red pearl. Begonias will bloom

Back-To-School Night At Stagg Attracts 125

About 200 people attended the first annual back - to - school night at Stagg High School last Tuesday, and Ray Bentz, assistant to the superintendent in charge of Stagg High School, estimated that about 125 people joined the organization at the meeting.

During the evening, guests visited classes to meet teachers and took time out for a brief business meeting. Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the evening.

C.T. Daciolas of 8858 Hill-side Drive in Hickory Hills was named chairman of the nominating committee, which will present a slate of officers at the next business meeting on Dec. 8 at 8 p.m. Other members of the committee are Mrs. Elmore Norton of 7915 W. 98th St. in Hickory Hills and Mrs. Michael Harris of 9517 S. 89th Ave. in Palos Hills.

Proposed by-laws, drafted by the steering committee, were distributed to members and will be voted upon at the Dec. 8 meeting. The steering committee consisted of Daciolas, Mrs. James Young, Miss Karen Lundgren, Don Brauer, Chet Miklos, George Strobel and Ray Bentz.

The organization is tentatively named the "Stagg High School Citizens' Association," and will be open to all people in the area, not just parents. Bentz said he was pleased by the number of members who do not have children at Stagg now.

Miss Karen Lundgren, chairman of the activities division at Stagg who conducted the meeting, said the faculty was "extremely pleased with the interest shown by citizens in the area."

Ex-Convict To Speak

Arnold J. Vander Heulen, former convict and dope addict who turned his back on his old life to become an evangelist is to speak at the Orland Park Bible church, 158th and Wolf rd. at the 7 o'clock service Sunday night, Dec. 6.

Vander Heulen, who terms himself an "ex-convict saved by God's grace," will tell of his conversion to Christ in Chicago's famed Pacific Garden mission, where such men as Mel Trotter and Billy Sunday, both widely known evangelists of earlier years, began new lives.

Shortly after he turned his back on crime, Vander Meulen surrendered to the FBI and was sentenced to Southern Michigan Prison at Jackson, Mich. on felony charges. It was in this prison that he decided to enter the ministry. In prison, he supervised the prison Bible School, which grew from a handful of inmates to more than 700 men studying the Bible behind prison walls. Vander Meulen was paroled after having served only two years of his long sentence, and almost immediately began his evangelistic career.

All members, as well as those wishing to join the organization, are invited to attend the business meeting at Stagg on Dec. 8, she said.

Ennis Explains Financial Operation Of School Dist.

An explanation of how public school financing is done has been given by Supt. James Ennis, head of the Mokena school system.

There is a financial statement published annually by each school district but Mr. Ennis points out it is pretty much a mass of figures.

His statement touching on the report follows:

"The annual financial statement for Mokena public school Dist. 159 was published in the Nov. 27 issue of the News - Bulletin. This published report complies with the laws of our state, but I contend that this report does not suffice for those of us who are sincerely interested in the financial operation of the school district. With this thought, I will attempt to present additional information which will supplement and clarify the previous report.

"School district accounting in Mokena includes a general bank account in the name of the school district in the Mokena State Bank. This general account is subdivided by the school's bookkeeper and treasurer under the direction of the superintendent. These subdivisions include the educational fund, building fund, transportation fund, bond and interest fund, and Illinois municipal retirement fund. Each fund is perpetuated by tax levies for each fund. The education and transportation funds are recipients of state aid based on average daily attendance and student passengers living more than 1 1/2 miles respectively.

"The education fund purpose is to meet expenses of salaries of all school personnel except custodians and bus drivers, health, purchases of instructional supplies, purchases of equipment which is not attached to the buildings, insurance on personnel, and student and community services such as accounts for book rental and athletics.

"The building fund comprises transactions involving custodial salaries, custodial supplies, utilities, insurance on buildings, capitol outlay for sites and buildings, and maintenance on equipment attached to the buildings.

"The transportation fund includes all transactions involving salaries of bus drivers, vers, supplies, gas and oil, maintenance, and insurance.

"The bond and interest fund is used to account for payments of principal and interest on bonded indebtedness. The taxes for this fund were automatically extended when the bonds were sold for construction and additions to the schools.

"The Illinois municipal retirement fund is used to account for payments of social security and retirement for non-certified personnel, such as office staff, custodians and bus drivers.

"It is the desire of the board of education and the superintendent that the taxpayers are sufficiently informed relative to the financial operation of the school district. If further information is desired, please do not hesitate to inquire at the superintendent's office."

Midwest Electric Firms Form Giant Power Pool

Organization of the largest power pooling network in the United States is announced by a group of electric companies operating in an area embracing much of the mid-western part of the country and extending east as far as Virginia.

The group has set up a formal regional organization called the Mid - America Interpool Network (MAIN).

The electric systems involved include American Electric Power Corporation, Commonwealth Edison Company, the Illinois - Missouri Pool, the Indiana Power Pool and the Wisconsin Planning Group.

The members of MAIN, which for more than a year have cooperated on an informal basis, will plan and coordinate the power supplies for their service areas under the new arrangement. These systems use 345,000-volt transmission lines and other high voltage facilities for extensive interchange of electricity.

The program involves operations in 10 states -- Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Ohio, southern Michigan, Missouri, Tennessee, Virginia, West Virginia and Wisconsin. More than 7,500,000 customers are served in this region. Utilities interconnected with MAIN members include public as well as investor-owned systems.

The MAIN members and their pool affiliates now have total electric generating capacity of approximately 27,000,000 kilowatts. By 1968 this capacity total will exceed 34,000,000. By 1980, it is estimated, it will exceed the 70,000,000-kilowatt mark.

MAIN members and their pool affiliates operate more than 100 generating stations. All are interconnected by transmission lines. Bulk power ultimately will move between groups over a network of extra-high-voltage lines at the level of 345,000 volts or higher. The 1,900 miles of EHV line now operated by the MAIN members will be about doubled by 1970.

Members of the group estimate the construction programs for generating and transmission facilities in the network's area between now and 1980 will total more than seven billion dollars.

MAIN was organized at a recent meeting in Chicago attended by principals of each of the member power systems. First chairman and present spokesman for MAIN is Thomas G. Ayers, President of Commonwealth Edison.

Mr. Ayers stated that additional members representing pools having 345,000 - volt transmission lines operating in areas contiguous to those of the initial group are in prospect.

He said it is expected that MAPP (Mid-continent Area Power Planners), a large regional pooling group operating in the States immediately west of the MAIN area and in the Province of Manitoba, Canada, will be represented in MAIN. Inclusion of a MAPP representative in MAIN would provide inter-regional coordination and assure continuity of planning for the large EHV grid which will cover both areas.

Another group of companies serving portions of Missouri and Kansas, constituting the MOKAN power pool, is planning a 345 kv interconnection with the Illinois - Missouri Pool and an expansion in its planning group which would include representation in MAIN. This arrangement would further extend the area of economic planning.

"The informal cooperation between members of MAIN over the last year or two has brought such gratifying results that the decision was made to set up this new organization," said Mr. Ayers.

"One of the principal benefits to be derived from "MAIN," Mr. Ayers said, "will be the reductions in investment costs thru coordinated planning of generating and transmission facilities."

"This principle has been demonstrated by three MAIN members -- American Electric Power, Commonwealth

Edison and Wisconsin Electric Power Company -- who have been able thru interchange of power to delay, for significant periods during the last few years, generating station construction expenditures of approximately $100,000,000 thru coordinated planning.

In the early 1900's, the new mechanical monster, the automobile struck so many pedestrians and frightened so many chickens, cows, horses etc. it forced the state of Tennessee to pass a most unusual law. This law required every motorist who planned to drive to warn the public one week in advance by inserting a notice through want ads in the local papers.

Margie Olson Hostess To Students From Overseas

Telephone: 479-3521
On Sunday, Nov. 30, Margie Olson was hostess to several students from foreign countries who are now attending college in this country. From Joliet Junior college there were two students from countries very remote from each other, Abdul Khan represented Pakistan and Carmen Milagros hailed from Puerto Rico. Juan Estremedo from Cuba and Julio Montez from El Salvador were able to speak to Carmen in her native Spanish.

A girl from Greece was also invited but had to study for exams and was unable to attend.

The young people have planned another get together before Christmas and it was hoped that Elena will be on hand at that time. It was a very interesting meeting of people with unusual backgrounds but the games they played and the conversations they had only proved that the future of our world lies in its youth.

Members of the Burros football team have been requested to return their football suits. George Krueger is puzzled by the lack of interest parents and players have shown in his request. Unless the Burros suits are returned soon, parents will be sent bills for uniforms depending on the equipment each boy has. Only four suits have been returned according to Krueger.

The Mokena Methodist church will hold its annual sandwich, salad and dessert supper and "singspiration" program Sunday, Dec. 6 beginning at 6:15 p.m.

This program is sponsored by the adult church school class. The senior and junior choirs and the senior hiMYF will be participating. The "singspiration" will begin at 7:30 p.m.

Please bring sandwiches and either a salad or dessert. Everyone is welcome.

Tomorrow morning at 10 a.m. the doors of St. Mary's new gym will be open to the public for the annual Christmas bazaar. For several months Mrs. W. Warwick and her co-workers have been preparing the articles for sale. Among the varied items will be handmade doll clothes and Christmas decorations as well as embroidered linens and wearing apparel for children and adults. There will be a country store featuring home preserved fruits and vegetables, bakery goods and homemade candy. Plants of many varieties in attractive containers, greeting cards and Christmas cookies are awaiting your pleasure.

On Saturday, the sales will begin at 10 a.m. and at 5 o'clock in the evening, the ladies will serve a spaghetti dinner with all the usual foods included in a meal of this kind. Prices: $1.25 for adults, 50¢ for school children and 35¢ for pre-schoolers.

The proceeds from the bazaar and dinner will be added to the building fund to help pay for the new addition to the school now under construction.

Sixteen Bob Cat pins were presented to the following new Scouts at the recent Cub Scout Pack 40 meeting: Scott Sondergaard, Joseph Boltek, James Langs, Jerry Thomas, Mike Doctor, Russell Clark, Mark Pachol, Mark Matthews, Douglas Laird, Thomas Brown, Tim Wilson, Danny Samanich, James Jeccha, Mike Bond, Larry Lail and Jeffery Lehmann.

Frontier Round-Up patches were awarded to the following scouts for recruiting the new members: Jerry Sondergaard, Gordon Richards, Tom Langs, Bill Thomas, David Sanes, James Yarbough, Bruce Pachol, Mike Matthews, Marvin Brown, Tom Hannifin, Peter Best, Henry McNally, Mark Matthews and Brian Elias.

Other awards were earned by: Peter Best and Brian Elias, silver arrows; Marvin Brown and Bradley Miller, bear badge; Eugene Golden, gold and silver arrow; Bruce Pachol, lion badge; and Mark Matteo, bear badge and gold arrow.

The next pack meeting will be held on Thursday, Dec. 10. The Mokena Community Firemans Women's Auxiliary held a meeting at the firehouse Tuesday, Nov. 24.

A note of appreciation was sent to LeRoy Harling, thanking him for his donation.

The women have been taking first aid courses. The women discussed learning to run the recessitory.

A Christmas party is to be held Tuesday, Dec. 22 at the firehouse. All firemen and wives are invited. There is to be a $1 grab-bag funny gift.

Bunco was played and prizes awarded to Cordy Bachman, Phyllis Rust, Mrs. Schultz and Bev Hass.

Refreshments were served by Donna Mangun and Eleanor Haehnlein.

TET Corp. Puts Investment Tax Into Earnings

Orville S. Carpenter, president of Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation, announced today that the company will "flow thru" to earnings the investment tax credit applicable to 1964 investments. He estimated the credit to be "in the range of 25 cents per share".

The accounting decision was made pursuant to a recent Federal Power Commission ruling prescribing optional procedures for the investment tax credit. The investment tax credit was first introduced into the federal income tax laws in 1962; amendments in the 1964 tax bill prompted the recent FPC accounting rule.

Job Training Center Seeks Work For Retarded

"An Opportunity For Dignity Through Work."

This is the slogan above the mural at the entrance to St. Michael Workshop. The mural shows a workman eagerly approaching his task.

St. Michael Workshop is a job training center, a brick and concrete block structure, well lighted and ventilated, operated in conjunction with the Lt. Joseph P. Kennedy School for Exceptional Children at 123rd st. and Wolf rd. It has 3,200 square feet of floor space with an additional 1,200 square feet devoted to classroom and storage space. The building also has its own loading dock to facilitate the handling of materials used in the workshop operation. And the chief function of all this is to help handicapped youngsters become useful, self supporting community members.

The youngsters who attend the Kennedy school are from the ranks of the mentally retarded. And the same is true for those enrolled at the training center. Some are pupils at the Kennedy school but the others are from the surrounding communities, including some from Lockport, Joliet, Tinley Park, Oak Lawn, Mokena, Worth, Evergreen Park and Chicago.

The trainees really should be listed as young adults as the minimum age limit is 16 1/2 years. There are now 70 full and part-time enrollees, five of whom are girls.

Since the trainees learn by doing the primary need of a job center is sub-contracted work. Many firms supply the center with operations which they find more profitable to farm out than to perform in their own plants. They pay the center and the center in turn pays the trainees a nominal wage.

This sub-contracted work provides trainees with a variety of tasks in terms of complexity and manual dexterity required. Some of the contracts now in progress or which have been completed include:

A candle-making operation that turns out a product of such quality as to merit marketing in such outlets as Marshall Fields. Packaging of products is another operation and the school has many of these, including bicycle parts; plastic dinnerware, premium merchandise; hardware items; model airplane kits; tobacco and pipe kits; moth cakes; kitchen items, such as scouring pads; stationery items, including ballpoint pens.

The trainees also assemble and package toys; do-it-yourself kits; components of a Christmas golf kit and games.

They assemble hair curlers; fishing equipment, mops and ping pong paddles. Collating and inserting mailings are another task and some of the trainees are working at assembling and wiring simple electrical items.

Much more work is needed. The main source of sub-contracts has been the Community Industrial Contract Association, which has been endorsed by the Welfare Council of Metropolitan Chicago. The CICA employs a fulltime person to solicit work for its members which include the Illinois Association for the Crippled, the Cook County Welfare Department, the Retarded Childrens Aid, the Chicago Jewish Vocational Service, the Chicago School for the Retarded, and the Kennedy Job Training Center.

However, the Kennedy center requires more work than it receives thru the CICA to meet the needs of its expanding program.

To meet this need the school recently employed a field representative. Selected for this work was John Oster, of New Lenox retired superintendent of New Lenox schools. He is now meeting with area employers and speaking before service clubs and civic groups in his quest for more work for the youngsters. Mr. Oster has a master's degree in educational administration from the U. of I.

To delve into the history of the program for a few moments it should be related that the Kennedy Job Training Center opened Jan. 1, 1962, as a unit of Lt. Joseph P. Kennedy School for Exceptional Children, to provide the boys from 16 up with work experience to prepare them for eventual employment upon leaving the school.

The project then was housed in two rooms below the school kitchen. Melvin Greenstein was not only the director, a position he still holds, but he was the entire staff. Mr. Greenstein has a master's degree in personnel administration from the University of Chicago, and many years of experience in vocational counselling and work with retarded children.

Now there are six more members on the staff:

Howard Weiss, evaluation supervisor, has a master's degree in rehabilitation from the University of Buffalo and several years experience as vocational counsellor and workshop supervisor at Chicago Jewish Vocational Service.

Richard H. Edwards, production supervisor, has a BS degree in education from Central State college in Oklahoma and a number of years experience in industrial plants.

Malvin P. Petterson, production supervisor, has a BS degree from Loyola of Chicago and is now taking graduate work at DePaul.

Roger Burgreff, production supervisor, has a BA degree in speech therapy from DePaul. He has had one year service as a graduate assistant at Michael Reese hospital and is now doing graduate work at DePaul. He is a 2nd Lt. in the U.S. Army on deferment.

Mr. Oster, who has had 31 years of experience in the educational field, and Mrs. Marie J. Letsos, secretary-clerk.

Mr. Greenstein is responsible for the overall operation of the center, as well as the specific duties of parent-counselling, contract procurement, job placement and public relations. The evaluation supervisor handles dles psychological testing, some of the in-take interviewing and is responsible for individual and group counselling of the trainees.

The production supervisors closely guide the trainees in the area of actual work. They not only teach the youngsters how to work but the importance of work and the importance of doing the best job possible.

There is an evaluation period of six weeks. The actual work training period lasts 26 weeks. Attention is given to giving the trainee work of increasing complexity and responsibility, permit him more freedom of action and subjecting to more job pressures and having supervision more matter of fact.

At the close of the training period a final evaluation is made. Recommendations are made for his or her employment in industry, or in some sheltered setting, or for referral to some other community resource. At all times families of the trainees are kept informed of their progress and at the close of the program results and recommendations are discussed with them.

Trainees are counselled in job-seeking techniques, proper behavior in an interview and how to handle an employment application. When a trainee is ready for regular employment the Center provides job placement services, so that the young retardate can be placed in a job appropriate to his level of functioning.

How are some of the "alumni" doing?

Ronald has spent over a year with a construction firm performing a variety of tasks.

Raymond has been a mail clerk in one of the offices of a national firm for over two years.

Dennis has been with a manufacturing concern for more than a year, doing a number of factory operations.

Bob has been working on the loading docks of a trucking company for several months.

Tom is employed in a cleaning plant on the North Shore since last July.

Larry was recently placed in a small manufacturing plant in his home town.

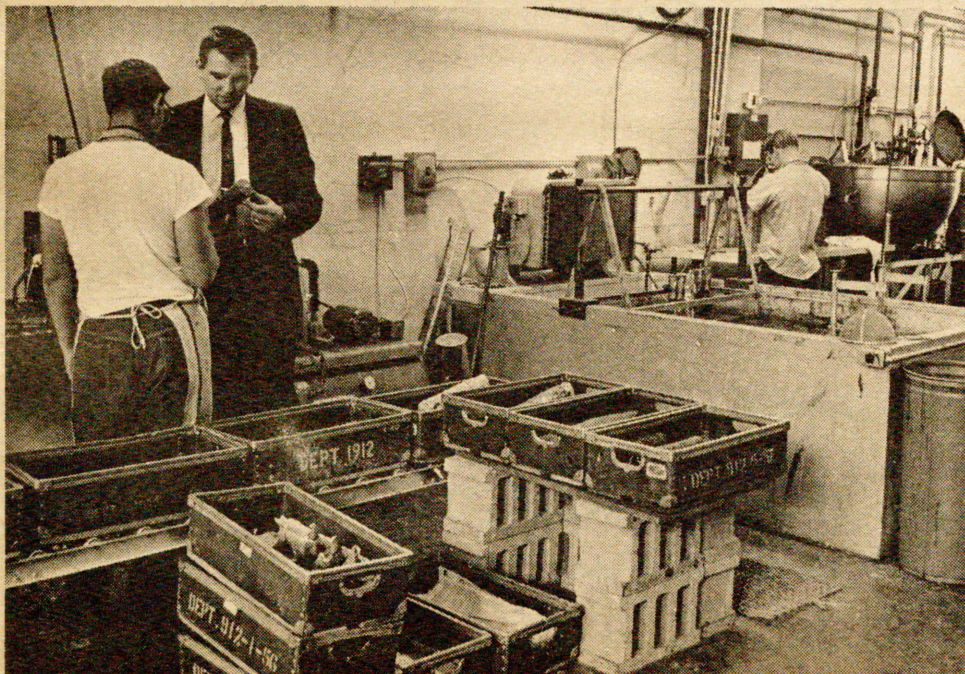

Frank, Jerry, Raymond, Joe and Jim are all working in a nursing home, taking care of chores in the institution's kitchen and laundry.

This is just a sampling.

The records of the Job Training Center show that between 75 and 80 per cent of the retarded are capable of becoming useful citizens with the help of special education and rehabilitation. The vast majority can be self-sufficient rather than dependent on the community for care, feeding and lodging.

The Kennedy Job Training Center is proud that it has helped to make many young men self-dependent and that it has added to their sense of dignity.

The Kennedy-trainee worker knows why he works. He has been taught that he is successful only to the extent that he contributes to the value of the finished product. He knows that unless his employer gets a good day's work from his employees he cannot stay in business.

CANDLE MAKING is one of many projects supervised by Roger Burgreff, a production supervisor.

Sandburg Swim Team Wins Match

After an opening victory, 59 - 36, last week against Glenbrook the Carl Sandburg swimmers will meet Thornton here, Saturday (Dec. 5) at 2:00. Though early in the season, two school records were set last week.

Terry Brazel set the 200 yard freestyle record and Bob Hutchinson set the 50 yard freestyle record. In sophomore competition the young Eagles ended up on top 51 - 44.

Against Glenbrook the varsity won all the events except the first and last, the 200 yard medley relay and 200 yard free style relay.

In Saturday's meet against Thornton the Eagles expect to do best in the freestyle sprints, the distance events, the backstroke and the breaststroke. After last year's defeat by Thornton, varsity coach John Weber is cautious, only willing to predict that the meet will be a close one.

WINNER OF 200-YD. free style swim in the match with Glenbrook North in Sandburg pool last Saturday was Terry Brazel, shown here, a sophomore at CSHS.

Sandburg Cagers Place 3rd In Turkey Tourney

BY ED PETERSON

Carl Sandburg's Eagles got things rolling Saturday night by downing Kankakee for their first win of the season. The win came in the second game of their Turkey Tourney.

Wheaton Township high school's Wildcat's won the tourney by defeating the Thornton Fractional North Meteors in the final game, 64-48.

Friday, the Eagles had been beaten by the Meteors 58-52 losing their chance to play in the championship game. The absence, due to sickness, of Bruce Huink, 6'9" center, proved disastrous to the game Eagles. With merely 5 seconds to go in the game, and the Eagles trailing by 2 points, 57-55, Roland Roth, 6'2" forward, calmly stepped up to the free throw line and dropped in two one-pointers to knot the score. An Eagle foul allowed Bill Walski, Meteor forward, to score the winning point from the free - throw line with the clock showing no time left.

The Eagles were paced by Drew Corley with 16 points and Roth, with 14.

In Saturday night action against Kankakee, Sandburg led throughout the game, with Hyink back in action. Hyink scored 18 points as Corley again tallied 16. The final score in the Eagle triumph was 54-44.

Eagle Wrestlers Drop First Matches Of Year

by TIM SEDGWICK

Lossing to LaGrange 22 - 19 and Hinsdale 23 - 16, the Carl Sandburg wrestlers found their weakness in the lower weight divisions.

In their meet against LaGrange the Eagles were losing 16 to 0 before they scored their first point. Against Hinsdale they were behind 14-0 before they scored.

This weekend at Sandburg the Eagle matmen will tangle with Downers Grove (Friday 7:30) and Joliet (Saturday

1:30), both considered by coach John Anderson as tough opponents.

Also during last week the junior - varsity, sophomore and freshmen teams lost to both LaGrange and Hinsdale.

Eagles winning against both LaGrange and Hinsdale were Tom Osling and Larry Cobden. Those winning a single match were Bill Karelich, Wally Sebut, Bob Hunnewell, Tom Waislet and Jesse Powell.

L-W Takes Consolation Round In Cage Tourney

By NORM BEEBE

Dropping their encounter with Lockport Central, host school in an invitational basketball tourney last Friday night 55 to 51, Lincoln-Way cagers surged back Saturday night to take the consolation round 64 to 62, from the De La Salle Meteors.

The Meteors had been pre-tourney favorites but fell before Peoria Richwood, 52-49 in Friday night's play.

The Knights, under their new coach, Al Willis, had lost two tough ones, by four points each, one to Peotone and one to Lockport.

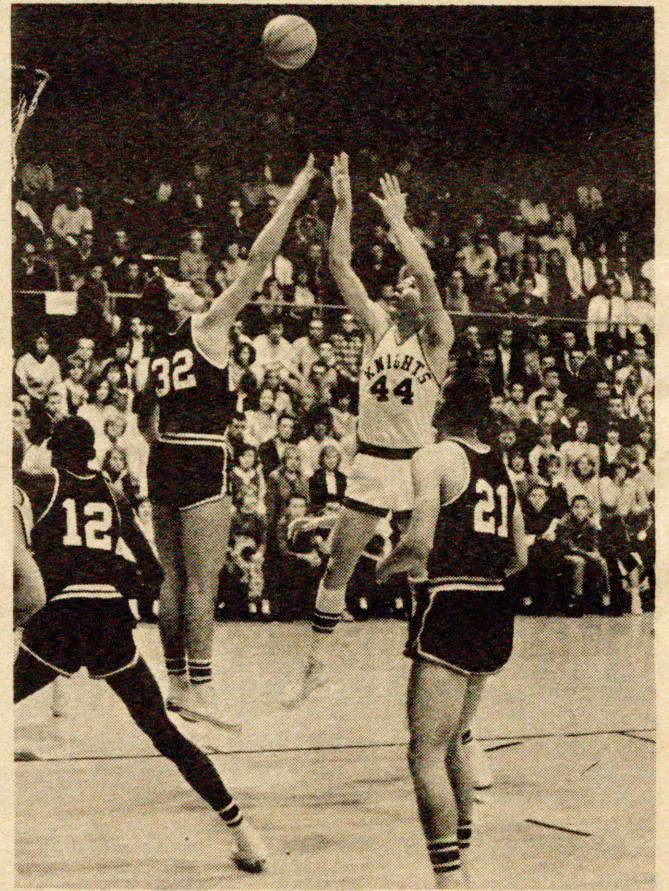

Lincoln - Way was never behind in its game with De-LaSalle but the Knights were never off the anxious seat. They led 18 to 12 at the end of the first frame, 34 to 27 at the half, 52 to 45 at the close of the third period when each team tallied 18 points, and sweat it out in the final stanza when the Meteors' Vyto Abramavious counted nine points. He missed, however, in the last six seconds when he failed to drop a pair of free throws that would have tied the score at 64-all. As it was the final horn found the Knights on top 64-62.

The Meteors outscored the Knights in the last quarter, 17 to 12.

De La Salle proved superior in rebounding but the Lincoln-Way squad qualified for their sharpshooter badges with a .400 shooting percentage from the floor and .761 at the free throw line.

That final period was a rough one for any spectators suffering from hypertension. With a little over four minutes to go Abramavious counted five quick points and the score was 58-all. Seviria Brown missed a free throw that would have put the Meteors ahead and Lincoln-Way went to work.

Howard Grimes, 6-foot 5 senior at the New Lenox school led the assault. He dropped in two consecutive free tosses and followed it up with a jump shot to make JUMP BALL--and who got it here the photographer didn't recall. It looks like maybe Dan Ramsden, No. 32, 6' 6 1/2" of Lockport might be on the side where the ball is coming down but frequently in Basketball looks can be deceiving. That No. 44 is Lincoln-Way's Howard Grimes 6' 5". No. 21 is John Rogers and No. 12 is the Lockport veteran, Bill Ford. The action was in the invitational tourney at Lockport Central. Lincoln-Way lost to the Porters 55-51 but was winner in the consolation road.

the score 62-58 with 3:26 remaining of playing time.

Stanfill and Abramavious each made two charity tosses and with 38 seconds left on the clock the score was 64-62. Abramavious managed to steal the ball but Tom Hamilton's interception was a save. A bad pass gave the Meteors another chance by Abramavious missed on the bonus throws.

Grimes was high point man for Lincoln-Way with 20; Stanfill was next with 19 and Hamilton garnered 17. Schram counted six points and Schroeder two.

In the game against Lockport the host school led 18 to 13 at the end of the first period and 31 to 25 at half-time. It was 44 to 39 Lockport at the end of the third frame with Lincoln - Way scoring 14 points to the Porters 12 and in the last quarter the Knights again had a one point margin, 12 to 11.

Dan Ramsden, 6-foot-6 1/2 transfer from Hoopson led the Porters with 14 points; Murawski had 12; Ford 9; J. Rogers and Meader 5 each; Kalmes, 6, Campbell 3, coming in the last 30 seconds and Ward 1. Grimes led Lincoln-Way with 16 points, Stanfill had 13, Schram, 10; Schroeder 7 and Hamilton 5.

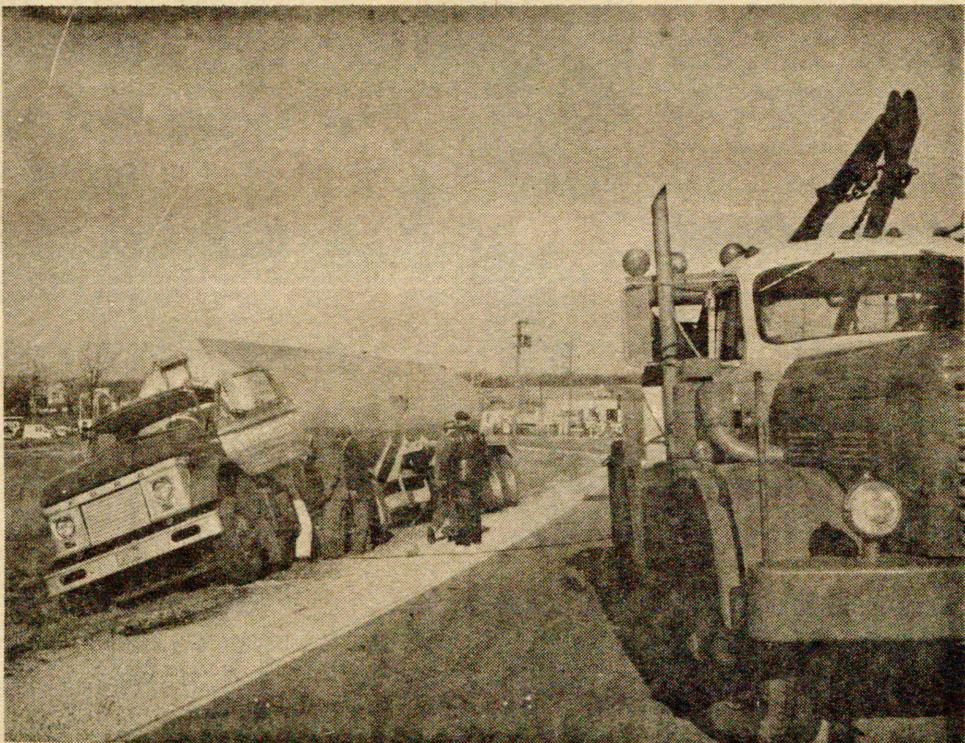

Earlier in the week the Eagles were defeated by the Eisenhower Cardinals, 47-43. The Eagles led for the first three quarters of the game, only to have Blue Island take a small lead and hang on for the victory.

This Friday night the Eagles travel to Reavis in their conference opener. Saturday night Sandburg clashes with the Hinsdale Red Devils on their court.

A BIG TANK truck carrying flammable solvents overturned on U.S. 45, about a block and a half south of U.S. 30 in the village of Frankfort Monday. Large quantity of the cargo escaped and Frankfort firemen washed it down a ditch along the west side of the road. The owner and driver, John A. Curran, Stickney, told Frankfort Police Chief Francis Simon that another southbound truck cut him off and forced him off the road. The wheels on the right side of the vehicle hit a soft spot and the tanker went over. When this picture was taken wreckers had just finished getting the truck on its wheels. No one was injured. Hill Parent-Teacher Group.

The five interested people who attended the November meeting of the Arbury Hills Civic Association, did not quite come up to the 14 necessary for a quorum.

There was to have been a nominating committee formed in order that a slate could be drawn up. In case you don't realize it, it is necessary to have a slate of officers for an organization even if it does become dormant. The re-registration papers must be filed with the state with the signatures of the officers in order to maintain the original charter.

It will be necessary also to have a quorum of fourteen members present at the January meeting in order that the election can take place.

There is an opening on the slate for the office of secretary - treasurer. There are interested persons to fill the president and the vice president places on the slate. If anyone is interested in filling the one vacancy, please contact Marie Hovi at 479-5740.

There is a definite date set now for the children's Christmas party. The date is Saturday, Dec. 19, at the all-purpose room of the school.

Beginning this week there will be ladies placing calls to the Arbury Hills women to request a donation of home made Christmas cookies to be used at the party.

The First Nighters will hold their December meeting at the home of Mrs. Richard Heim tonight, Thursday, Dec. 4, at 8 p.m.

This Saturday being the first Saturday of the month, the Summit Hill Boy Scout Troop Number 10 will make their regular monthly newspaper drive. Persons with newspapers or magazines to contribute to the drive are asked to have them bundled in some manner and placed either at the front door, or at the garage door before 9:30 a.m.

Do not place the newspapers at the curb, since it might interfere with the garbage collection which also takes place each Saturday morning.

Don't forget that the Arbury Hills boys baseball league is collecting S & H trading stamps in order to purchase uniforms for the 1965 season. There are three men who are taking the collection: Gordon Marzano, Joseph Mangan, and Richard Prather. The collection to date is progressing slowly.

itation to all interested people to lend a hand with the arrangements for the annual fund-raising dance in February.

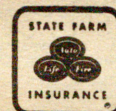

The ladies auxiliary of the group will serve refreshments at the meeting.

ONE-WAY REASONING

—When Rep. Fino (R.— N.Y.) introduced a bill to hike Social Security payments by 10 per cent, he didn't utter a word about where the money is to come from. At present rates, more goes out than now comes in.

SPACELESS—The House

Science Committee, which deals in outer space problems, has problems in inner space. The committee is confined to cramped basement quarters because its new quarters are not ready for occupancy.

WISH YOU WERE . . .

The proposal to raise the public debt limit from $315 billion to $324 billion brought this question from a quipster: "Isn't it too bad that our great grandchildren can't be here to see what a wonderful time we are having spending their money?"

SHORT MEMORY—Rep.

H. R. Gross (R.—Iowa) reports that although Commerce Secretary Hodges said, in 1962, that there were too many jobs in his department, the Commerce payroll has been increased by more than 1,200 since that year.

My Neighbors

"I told Harry I would come along and tell you exactly what's wrong with him so there's no misunderstanding."

The Old Timer

"The general complaint about cars is that the motors won't start and the payments won't stop."

Letters To The Editor

Dear Sir:

As representative of Palos District 118 teachers, I feel it essential for the readers to vote yes to the bond issue of District 118. Speaking as a teacher I can see the ob-viousness of the additional problems resulting from transfers and the 20% grade load increase in the past three years in some grades.
Your children should not be sighted because of overloads in the classroom etc.

It is all very well to say the district wants a good school but are you acquainted with the facts which would make you take positive action
— that you will go to the polls on Dec. 5 to vote yes?

I shall name just some outstanding facilities needed in the near future; ten additional classrooms, a music room a speech correctionist's room, and a foreign language room.

Naturally, the thought uppermost in your minds is the cost. In layman's language it is this: With a projected need as stated by the board of education of $450,000 on a bond issue, county auditors figure tax increase by .126 cents per $100 valuation. Translated into a $25,000 home with an equalized assessed tax valuation of something less than $12,000 this would add about $15 to the total tax bill the first year and decline from that amount each year as the debt is paid off.

The restricted situations that would arise if the bond issue were not passed are many but basically add up to the conversion of libraries, gyms, and lounges to be used as classrooms, eliminating — due to cost and space —

Do-It-Day In Yule Seal Campaign

"Monday, December 7, is Do It Day -- the day to answer your Christmas Seal
letters", announced John H.
Weitendorf, Christmas Seal
chairman of the Will County Tuberculosis Association.

"In an effort to encourage residents who have not as yet answered their Christmas Seal letter", Mr. Weit-endorf continued, "this day has been pinpointed because it is also the 58th anniversary of the first Christmas Seal sold in the United States.
We sincerely hope that Will county residents will help us commemorate this anniversary by mailing their contributions on this day."

Gov. Otto Kerner has also issued a proclamation declaring Dec. 7 as DO-IT-
DAY in Illinois.
Weitendorf called attention to the fact that doctors have tools available to lick TB, but these tools cannot be used unless the unknown active TB cases are discovered.

Gov. Kerner pointed out in his proclamation that each day in Illinois eleven new cases are discovered and TB takes a life every eighteen hours so there is much work yet to be accomplished.

To date $13,356.53 has been contributed to the will county campaign this year and the association hopes to raise $35,281.74 to meet minimum budgetary requirements for the 1964-65
fiscal year.

Contributions from the seals that were mailed to 52,000 homes, businesses and industries throught the county are used to support libraries, special reading teachers, foreign language teacher, and music and band.
(The bus facility alone, by law only has to transport students who live over 1 1/2 miles from school. With no sidewalks the policy at 118 is for everyone who wishes
it. What if you had to transport your own children for a year? How far does $15 go?)

You are one reader. Tell your friends and neighbors, what an important long term investment for cultural and academic development this issue is.

This is your children's future! For a richer education and a better life, don't let them down!

John Mau, President
Palos Education Association

OBJECTION DEADLINE
(CNS) The deadline for filing objections to 1964 personal property tax assessments in all 30 suburban townships is next Saturday, Dec. 7, the county board of the associat's programs of tuberculosis prevention and detection, it was explained.

In closing, Mr. Weitendorf said, "Of course, during the Christmas Season, Everybody's swamped with things to do and I'm sure lots of people who've been trying to get a chance to answer their Christmas Seal

letter just haven't had a moment to do so. That's what "DO IT DAY" is for. To all those who haven't yet responded, I want to express the hope that they will set aside the necessary few minutes in that day to do the job.
To any who may not have received their Christmas Seals this year, I earnestly suggest that they contact the association at 301 Comstock
